Senate to Probe Ghettos Secretly for Red Agitators

By JOHN CHADWICK
WASHINGTON (AP)—Sen. Karl E. Mundt, top Republican on the Senate panel assigned to investigate racial riots, said yesterday he would bet "the Communists are in this some place."
He indicated that in some cases his investigators will mingle with riot area residents on an undercover basis, rather than disclosing they are Senate investigators.
Just this week the subcommittee quietly set up offices in Detroit and Newark, where the bloodiest and most devastating of the riots occurred.

Mundt said he would not be surprised if the trained investigators turn up evidence of a Communist core that moves into riot-torn areas to fan the flames once trouble starts. On the basis of 25 years of Red-hunting in the House and the Senate, he said, he knows that "the Communists fish in troubled waters."
The South Dakota senator has been working with Sen. John L. McClellan, D-Ark., chairman of the Senate permanent investigations subcommittee, in laying the groundwork for an intensive probe.

Asked if the subcommittee plans to probe the activities of militant Negro organizations like the Student Non-Violent Coordinating Committee, Mundt said, "We will look into any organization that appears to be involved."
He said, as McClellan has previously, that this will include what role, if any, has been played in the riots by antipoverty workers financed by the Office of Economic Opportunity.
The Senate voted the subcommittee $150,000 last month to conduct a complete investigation of the widespread riots and of lawlessness generally and directed it to propose measures for the preservation of law and order.

Mundt told a reporter that staff investigators have begun what might be termed a diagnosis inquiry into the causes of the riots, interviewing slum area residents rather than just city officials, police or known agitators.
He said they will try to find out if the residents blame lack of jobs, bad housing, racial discrimination, police tactics, inadequate recreation facilities or other causes.
After Congress returns from its Labor Day recess Sept. 11, he said, the subcommittee will meet to get a report on what leads have been discovered and then decide what direction the investigation will take.

THE WORLD
President Johnson called an impromptu news conference in Washington to defend his administration's policy of controlled bombing of North Vietnamese targets and used the occasion to issue a strong denial that there was any serious rift between his military and civilian advisers on the conduct of the war in Vietnam. In an unusual attack on Washington newsmen, Johnson said that the difference between secretary of defense McNamara and the Joint Chiefs of Staff have been blown out of proportion by reporters seeking sensational news.

Arab chiefs of state, concluding their summit meeting, resolved to work out a nonmilitary solution to their political impasse with Israel. President Gamal Abdel Nasser of the United Arab Republic and King Hussein of Jordan were said to be preparing concessions to relieve their countries of the economic squeeze imposed by the Israeli occupation of its land.

THE NATION
The United Automobile Workers union named the Ford Motor Company as the union's strike target next week. Walter P. Reuther, president of the U.A.W., began intensive negotiations with Ford, in an effort to avert a strike deadline on Wednesday, when contracts with the major automobile manufacturers expire.

President Johnson said at his news conference that he regretted the decision by major steel companies to raise their prices on steel bars, but at the same time, he made it clear that he did not plan to do anything about it.

The M-16 rifle, a topic of controversy in military and congressional circles, has won a vote of confidence from the Pentagon. The military announced the award of a contract totaling more than $25 million to Colt Industries for about a quarter of a million more M-16's.

LBJ Denies Rift On Bomb Policies

By DOUGLAS B. CORNELL
WASHINGTON (AP) — President Johnson said yesterday there is no deep division in his administration on the conduct of the war in Vietnam. And he almost snorted at a suggestion Secretary of Defense Robert S. McNamara might be at the point of resigning.
Johnson told a news conference that while there is not complete agreement on everything among himself, McNamara, Secretary of State Dean Rusk and the military high command, there is a surprising and a very agreeable amount of unanimity—including agreement on all the 300 targets picked for bombing in North Vietnam.
"There are no quarrels, no antagonisms," the President said.
Johnson told reporters pressing around his office desk he has been in Washington 36 years and "during that period I have been intimately associated with the armed services. I have never known a period during that time when I thought there was more harmony, more general agreement, and a more cooperative attitude, or when there were more able men in control."

realization of many needed community projects. He is a member of the Conewango Club, the Conewango Valley Country Club, and the Warren Rotary Club. He was the executive director of the Warren County Development Association.
Kerlin was born in Roanoke, Va. July 30, 1905. Much of his life was spent in the military service. After attending grade and high school in Roanoke, he attended the famous Virginia Military Institute. He graduated in 1930 receiving a Bachelor of Science degree in Civil Engineering.
Following his graduation he obtained a commission as a Second Lieutenant in the U.S. Army Reserves. He served in various assignments as a reserve officer and was promoted to the rank of First Lieutenant.

In 1937 Kerlin left the service to accept a position as assistant industrial engineer with Penelec in Warren. He remained with the company until Aug. 1941, when he was ordered to active duty in the U.S. Army. Through the war years he served in the European Theatre in Normandy, North France and Belgium, Ardennes, Rhineland, and in Central European campaigns. He reached the rank of Lieutenant colonel.
After the war Colonel Kerlin was commissioned in the regular Army and served in the Command and General Staff College; Headquarters Army Grounds Forces; U.S. Delegation to the Military Committee of the Five Powers in London; Western Regional Planning Group of NATO; Headquarters Allied Land Forces, Copenhagen; as professor of Military Science and Command of Cadets at V.M.I., and at Armor Center Headquarters, Fort Knox, as assistant chief of staff, controller. He served in the latter capacity until his retirement by action of the law, on October 31, 1960.

Among his decorations he is proud to list the Silver Star, Bronze Star with Oak Leaf Cluster, European Theater Medal with five Battle Stars, and Arrow Head.

While he was knocking down assorted ideas Friday, Johnson told a questioner that reports that there might be "some kind of a new peace move around about the time of the Vietnamese elections" Sunday "are off the top of someone's head."
"I know nothing about them," the chief executive said. "We look every day for every possibility that would lead toward peace, as I said yesterday. But I think that we do ourselves a great disservice when, out of the clear air, we conjure up something that has no basis in fact."

Politicians in and out of Congress have been getting in on the give-and-take over Vietnam policy for weeks, but Johnson was not in a mood to row.

Johnson lauded the Joint Chiefs as very able men of the finest character whose judgment is requested, respected and always considered carefully. But he said no two men ever see everything alike and throughout history there have been differences among the military and civilian leaders and between such civilians and Congress.
While he was knocking down assorted ideas Friday, Johnson told a questioner that reports that there might be "some kind of a new peace move around about the time of the Vietnamese elections" Sunday "are off the top of someone's head."

Pilot Escapes Serious Injury In Copter Crash

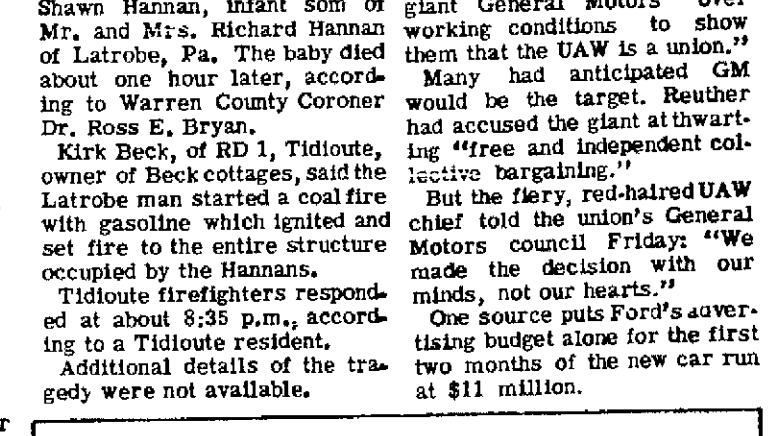

A helicopter crashed shortly after 2 p.m. yesterday off Route 6 about three miles from the intersection of Route 6 and Route 27.
The craft burst into flames and exploded but the pilot escaped with a scratched face and ripped shirt.
B.W. Kent, of Kent Helicopters Inc., Mayville, N.Y., was spraying potatoes in a section owned by Lauger Potato Farms in Lottsville. Kent said he was up about 200 feet when the helicopter's controls went out. Fire erupted after the crash landing. The pilot estimated there was about 35 gallons of gas left in his 60-65 gallon tank.
The accident occurred well off the highway and across from a swollen stream.
The craft was a mass of twisted metal with only a portion of the tail intact.
The Youngsville Volunteer Fire department sped to the scene along with the Youngsville ambulance.
Kent and his helicopter had been spraying in the general area yesterday morning and up until the crash.

Baby Dies in Tidoute Cottage Blaze
A summer cottage in the Tidoute area was destroyed by fire which also claimed the life of a 14-month-old baby boy.
Rushed to Warren General Hospital Thursday night was Shawn Hannan, infant son of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Hannan of Latrobe, Pa. The baby died about one hour later, according to Warren County Coroner Dr. Ross E. Bryan.
Kirk Beck, of RD 1, Tidoute, owner of Beck cottages, said the Latrobe man started a coal fire with gasoline which ignited and set fire to the entire structure occupied by the Hannans.
Tidoute firefighters responded at about 8:35 p.m., according to a Tidoute resident.
Additional details of the tragedy were not available.

Steelmakers Ignore Plea, Hike Prices
NEW YORK (AP) — Four more of the nation's leading steelmakers ignored an administration plea for restraint Friday and upped prices of steel bars.
At almost the same time as President Johnson was telling his news conference in Washington that the administration very much regretted the price increases, Bethlehem Steel Corp., No. 2 producer, and Inland Steel Co., No. 4, announced they were raising prices on bars.
A short time later, the No. 5 producer, Jones & Laughlin Steel Corp., announced it would follow suit, as did Armco Steel.
Republic Steel Corp., No. 3, started the price ball rolling Wednesday and was followed by U.S. Steel Corp., No. 1, Thursday. All four firms said they were raising the prices of bar products $3 a ton, or 1.8 per cent, effective Sept. 7.
"All of the firms blamed rising costs for the increases."
Steel bars are used in a variety of end products such as industrial fasteners and railroad car axles.
U.S. Steel's announcement Thursday of its third price increase within a month came only hours after Gardner Ackley, chairman of the President's Council of Economic Advisers, called on the industry to hold off on further price hikes.

Crippen Seeks Post as Commission Coordinator

Warren County Commissioner Lewis L. Crippen, who is president of the eight-county Northwestern Regional Planning and Development Commission, has informally placed his name in the running for the post of commission coordinator.

Erie County Commissioner William O. Hill Jr., as head of the committee to determine qualifications for the professional staff of the commission, will meet Sept. 6 with representatives of the state Community Affairs Department and Planning Board to review staff qualifications.

Hill, vice president of the regional commission, is considered a likely successor to Crippen as president at the end of the year.

Crippen, whose term as county commissioner ends this year, has shown interest in the coordinator's post in a letter to the staff qualifications committee.

The Warren County Commissioner, one of the most ardent supporters in organizing the regional planning and development unit last January, wrote the committee: "The experience I've gained through the formation of the commission may be of special value."

Crippen, who was defeated in the primary election as a Democratic candidate for reelection, is believed to have the support of Community Affairs Secretary Joseph W. Barr, in seeking the coordinator's post which will pay up to $13,500 a year.

The commission also plans to hire a municipal planner, possibly two, and a secretary. Regional offices will be located in Oil City.

Chautauqua County Could Save $40T on Poll Costs

JAMESTOWN, N.Y.—A savings of $40,000 to Chautauqua County taxpayers could be realized if 30,000 voters are registered by 9 p.m. today. If fewer than 50 per cent of the county's voters are registered by that time, eight additional registration days are required. If, however, the 50 per cent mark is reached, only four days of registration will be needed in October. The savings which could result would be the amount saved in personnel expenses.

Registration in Jamestown continues to increase steadily as the special hours of 1 p.m. to 9 p.m. appear to be very satisfactory to city residents. Yesterday 1,607 persons registered at the city's six polling places, marking the largest turnout this week. The five day total now stands at 7,466, according to figures compiled by the city Democratic committee. City hall continues to be the leader of all polling places, with a five day total of 1,376, followed closely by the Winsor st. fire station with 1,342. On the west side 1,288 have registered at Parcel Elementary School. Other polling places and their totals were: Prendergast Library, 1,169, Newland ave. fire station, 1,151; and C. C. Ring School, 1,152.

SOCIAL Wanderings by Marion Honhart

A FIVE WEEK TRAILER TOUR of the Western States has just been completed by Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Rapp of 9 Hammond street, who were accompanied by Mrs. Hazel Witt and Mrs. Myrtle Cobb, also of Warren---They visited the Rapps' son and family, the Rev. Marshall Holden at Rocky Ford, Colo., and a niece and family, Mrs. John Kazar in Denver, Colo., and nephew, Roland Rapp in Las Vegas, Nevada. The trip had its more than memorable moments: The travelers were in Denver on August 9th at the time of the earthquake. Severe trembling and shaking was experienced, and stores, no more than ten or twelve blocks from the Kazars' residence, had to close in order to clean up broken jars and cans thrown from the shelves. Then, they had the pleasure of meeting Tennessee Ernie Ford at the Denver Airport and had a few minutes chat with him. And, at Rocky Ford, famous for its watermelons and cantaloupes, they visited a genuine Western style fair. Rocky Ford, since 1875 or thereabouts, has had a "watermelon day" on the final day of the fair; this was the day the Warrenites attended when every person large enough to carry one is presented a luscious watermelon as a gift.

LITTLE MISS ROBYN JAYNE MEANS celebrated her sixth birthday last Saturday with a party at her home at 465 Buchanan street. The birthday table was centered with a clown decorated cake, and a bouquet of lovely garden flowers given to the young lady for her birthday by a neighbor, Mrs. C. J. Phillips. After refreshments of ice cream, cake and Kool-aid were served, candy favors, balloons and a prize were given to each of the guests: Lana and Terri Anderson, Rose Proud, Mary Pasquarette, Cathy and Lois Carter, Lisa Marchione, Kim Wareham, Ann Miller, Sally and Sue Hedman, Melanie Dunham and Cindy and Cheryl Means.

WOMAN'S CLUB BRIDGE, with four tables of the Howell Movement in play on Thursday afternoon had an average score of 24. Honors went as follows: First-Miss Judy Valone and Miss Felicia Lucia, 27½; Second-Mrs. George Sarvis and Mrs. Carl Hultberg, 27; Third-Mrs. Arthur DeLuca and Mrs. Melvin Ahlgren, 23½; Fourth-Mrs. Gaston Hamilton and Mrs. Shuri Glass, 23. There will be no game this coming Tuesday because of the flower show at the club. Bride will be resumed on Thursday September 14th, at the club, at the regular time, 1 o'clock.

MINIATURES: Hugh Lauffer, Robert Gannoe, Leroy Stoddard, Gerald Snyder and Marlin Neel of the First Baptist Church were among those attending the annual retreat and conference of The American Baptist Men of Pennsylvania on the campus of Bucknell University at Lewisburg, Penna.

Warren Art League begins its season this coming Thursday, September 7th, with a meeting at 7:30 p.m. But---the day before there will be a cleanup and workbee and everyone is asked to help at the Art Center, 7:30 p.m.

The Misses Jolynn and Julie Kwiatkowski have left for their home in Washington, D.C., after visiting their grandparents the Joseph Kwiatkowski of Pittsfield.

Russell and Lander Pre-School Mothers Club meets Tuesday at 8 p.m. The program will be a general discussion with the Kindergarten teachers. All members are urged to attend.

Lutheran Women Hold Conference

Mrs. Carl F. Eliason of 108 Church street, Sheffield, L.C. W. Synodical president, conducted the business sessions of the sixth annual convention of the Western Pennsylvania-West Virginia Synodical Unit of Lutheran Church Women at Thiel College, Greenville on August 25 and 26.

Elected to office at the convention was Mrs. John K. Timm of Erie, secretary. Five others named to the executive board were Mrs. David K. Bair of New Stanton, Mrs. John Chervick of Freedom, Mrs. Richard W. Solberg of Greenville, Mrs. Louis O. Sordahl of Export, Penna., and Mrs. James H. Terry II of Clarksburg, West Virginia.

Keynote speaker was the assistant to the president of the Lutheran Church in America and president of the U.S.A. National Committee of the Lutheran World Federation, Dr. George F. Harkins. He suggested that congregations engage in a serious program of renewal in this 450th anniversary year of the Reformation. Other speakers included Mrs. Leland E. Mills of Hackensack, N. J.; Mrs. E. G. Price of Mt. Lebanon, Pittsburgh.

The devotional leader at the sessions was the Rev. George E. Keck, pastor of Holy Trinity Lutheran Church, Greenville, who developed the convention theme "God's Call to Each Woman" through directed Bible study.

Program chairman for the convention was Mrs. Bair, and assisting were Mrs. Chervick, Mrs. Clarence H. Scranton, and Mrs. Solberg, with Mrs. Kenneth R. Barthel of Pittsburgh in charge of credentials and registration.

Other business at the two-day convention included adoption of amendments to the Constitution and to the By-laws. Delegates also approved a budget for 1968 with a goal of $80,200. Funds are channeled to assist in the work of the boards of the Lutheran Church in America.

A highlight of the business session was the election of 21 delegates to the triennial convention of the L.C.W. in Chicago in 1968. Those named were Mrs. Bair; Mrs. Arthur L. Bennett, Johnsonburg, Pa.; Mrs. Chervick; Mrs. David T. Finley, Mt. Lebanon (Pittsburgh); Sister Edith Fischer, North Hills Passavant Hospital, Pittsburgh; Miss Millie E. ## Ann Landers

Answers Your Problems

DEAR ANN LANDERS: I work for a large insurance company. Our department is called "The Fun And Games Department", because most of the secretaries and stenos are between 19 and 25.

The girl I am writing about is 20. She spends her lunch hours piercing ears. This self-styled surgeon carries her "tools" in her purse---needles, alcohol, catgut and a magnifying glass. She performs the surgery in the ladies room. Already she has pierced 20 sets of ears in our department and has made appointments in other departments.

I am not mad because the girl is making a small fortune on the side, but it seems to me that if she is going to perform illegal operations she should do it at home on her own time. What do you say?--NO HOLES IN MY HEAD

DEAR NO: Ear-piercing should be done by a physician in HIS office, and not by an amateur in a ladies room or even in her own home. It sounds as if the amateur surgeon has been lucky so far, but one of these days she may run into real trouble and then she'll wish she had stuck to her shorthand.

DEAR ANN LANDERS: I have an invalid mother who needs a great deal of attention. I am a professional woman and have engaged a nurse to care for Mother during the day. A practical nurse comes in at 4:00 P.M. and stays until I get home at 6:30. When I go out for the evening I must hire another nurse. The woman isn't always available and Mother is hard to get along with and won't stay with just anybody.

My fiance refuses to stay home with me and Mother more than two evenings a week. He enjoys the theater, concerts and boating, and likes to dine out on weekends. I think he is unreasonable. Should I return his ring?--ALICE

DEAR ALICE: I'm surprised he hasn't asked for it. Don't let your mother tyrannize you forever. Line up some competent sitters and tell Mother she'll have to get along with them. One of these days she will be gone and if you don't solve your problems by then, you'll have to hire someone to sit with YOU, Sister.

Giving Up Smoking Easy When You Bet

(c) N. Y. Times News Service
WASHINGTON—It is easier to make people stop smoking by threatening their pocketbooks than stressing the threat to health, according to a study by two Dartmouth College psychologists.

In an experiment with 25 persons, including 20 Dartmouth undergraduates, 84 per cent stopped smoking during the three to four month experiments and 37.5 per cent have not returned to their habit since.

Thomas J. Tighe and Rogers Elliott, the psychologists, said in a paper presented to the American Psychological Association convention yesterday that although many persons want to quit smoking, "They are not persistently exposed to the hazards of smoking."

In their experiment, they posed a persistent hazard by making volunteers put $50 into a pool in the beginning. If a volunteer smoked, he immediately lost the money; if he abstained for two days, he got back $10. Two weeks later, if he still hadn't smoked, he received $10 more.

"Thus, by betting money in an amount large enough to make its loss painful, he added to the general, but distant and often vague threat to health, an immediate, clearly defined and persisting aversive consequence of smoking during the threatment," they reported.

Soviet Union Expels Two U.S. Diplomats

MOSCOW (AP) — In an obvious retaliatory action, the Soviet Union yesterday threw two U.S. diplomats out of the country.

Brice K. Meeker, 45, the U.S. Embassy agricultural attache, and Richard Dabney Chapman, 38, the press attache, were charged with "activities incompatible with their diplomatic status." No details were given.

The U.S. Embassy issued a statement saying "Neither of these men has done anything wrong."

The State Department in Washington said the Soviet charge "has no basis in fact" and neither had engaged "in any action which could conceivably be described as incompatible with their status as diplomats."

The Foreign Ministry's action followed shortly after two Soviet diplomats of similar rank were refused re-entry into the United States because of their alleged involvement in a spy case. In international usage retaliation under such circumstances is usual.

Milk 'Credit' Plan Probed By Authorities

HARRISBURG (AP) — The state Milk Control Commission is checking the legality of a "credit" milk plan put into effect Friday by a dairy store chain operating in the Philadelphia area.

The chain, Cumberland Farm Dairies, is charging the state-set minimum of $1.08 per gallon but collects only 79 cents in cash for customers and asking them to "charge" the rest.

There is no time limit for repaying the credit, and, if a Cumberland Farms suit seeking to overthrow milk price controls is upheld by the State Supreme Court, it will never have to be paid, a dairy spokesman said.

The Milk Control Commission spokesman had no comment except that the matter was under investigation.

Earlier this week, the commission went to court in an attempt to halt the sale of cut-rate milk in the Pittsburgh area. The milk was being sold ostensibly for pets, but the state charged that the dealer was circumventing the law.

Vietnam Apathetic On Election

SAIGON (AP) — Reflecting the apathy that has marked much of the terrorist-plagued campaign, only about 3,000 persons turned out for the final public rally of South Vietnam's presidential candidates here last night.

Voters will choose a president and a 50-member Senate Sunday in the country's most momentous election since a referendum Oct. 23, 1955, led to the ouster of Emperor Bao Dai and proclamation of the republic.

Civilian candidates made a joint appearance on a platform in front of the U.S. Joint Public Affairs Office at one of Saigon's busiest intersections in the evening rush hour, but attracted a small crowd.

Salmon has 729,000 of the country's 5.85 million voters. In all, the rallies here and elsewhere have drawn fewer than 70,000 during a month's aerimous campaigning.

All campaigning stops by law at noon Saturday. Radio and television appearances of the candidates have reached but a small percentage of South Vietnam's people, many of whom do not own radios and have never heard of television.

Newspaper coverage of the election, although extensive, does not reach down to the villages and hamlets where about 60 per cent of the people live.

Chief of State Nguyen Van Thieu, the leading contender, and his running mate, Premier Nguyen Cao Ky, skipped the Saigon Rally. A spokesman said official business prevented them from being on hand.

The leading contenders, they had joined the 10 civilian teams on only two occasions. Instead they made frequent, ostensibly nonpolitical trips around the country as government leaders and officers in the armed forces.

Communists in the Saigon area used gunfire and grenades in the Red effort to terrorize voters and disrupt the election.

Among the latest casualties were two Americans, one killed and the other wounded in shooting incidents two blocks apart.

Some of the 22 American observers sent by President Johnson watched the Saigon rally from the terrace of the Rex Hotel, U.S. officers bullet just across the street, but all left for other engagements before the proceedings ended. The engagements included a reception by U.S. Ambassador Ellsworth Bunker.

The observers planned to meet with Thieu and Ky at the government's Independence Palace Saturday. At least one said, however, he planned to break away from the official schedule to try to see "if any hanky-panky is going on."

Opinions on Vietnam vary widely within the group.

Gov. Richard J. Hughes of New Jersey, a Democrat, was asked by a newsman what made him feel he was competent to evaluate the honesty of the Vietnamese election.

"I base this on my political experience and on being a judge of people," Hughes said.

He and Whitney Young, president of the National Urban League, made a trip to Phan Thiet, a provincial capital 95 miles northeast of Saigon, that underwent a Viet Cong mortar attack early Thursday.

A Personal Matter !

Deaths on the highways of this country last year exceeded 52,000, a figure that has apparently failed to make an impression on the driving public since the number of highway tragedies continues to increase.

And yet, if on all of the Nation's highways there had been only two deaths during all of last year how much less impressive that figure would have been—unless the two who died were members of your family.

Suddenly, traffic safety would have meant a great deal to the individual concerned.

Therein lies the tragedy of highway accidents, and the tragedy of the individual motorist being unable to associate himself with an accident until it is too late.

This Labor Day weekend it is quite probable that you will be driving somewhere, going to a picnic, taking a weekend vacation, or merely driving to the corner store.

If you do take a trip, long or short, remember this fact. Last year during the Labor Day weekend, in Pennsylvania, 31 people died in highway accidents. While the percentage is small compared to the millions of motorists driving on the Commonwealth's highways, the deaths were no less tragic to the families of those concerned.

Yes, unfortunately, it could happen to you.

This Labor Day drive to live—make no mistake about it.

RICHARD R. HARATINE

Month for Horse Trading

September is for horse trading.

Pork barrel, boondoggle, or a quest for excellence—call it what you will. The big story here—when the legislature meets back from its extended Labor Day "weekend"—will be a fierce, involved exchange of votes that will end with Governor Shafer getting almost exactly what he set out to get last April.

At issue for the moment is the exact amount involved in the Governor's recommendations for preferred and non-preferred appropriations. Give or take $50 million—"take" is more likely—the tab, over and beyond the $1.46 billion General Fund budget, will run another $300 million.

With passage of the State's basic budget, Democrats in the Legislature lost any advantage they had in their stance for economy.

A strange stance it was, anyway. For all the summer's debate, the Democrats came to last week's showdown asking for a paltry $18 million in cuts in the basic budget. Majority Leader Lee Donaldson, an Allegheny County Republican, seemed almost disappointed. "We're quibbling over a paltry one percent," he pointed out in the heat of the day-long debate. But that was the warm up. The basic $1.46 billion is financed through existing taxes.

The rest of the state's spending for fiscal 1967-68 will be covered by new taxes. Still to be covered are such blockbusters as the $48 million for Penn State, and lesser amounts for Temple and the University of Pittsburgh—not to overlook a paltry $11 million for the University of Pennsylvania.

There are parks and port projects and new commuter cars to be purchased for the Pennsylvania Railroad. There are local hospitals and local industrial development projects—and for each project, there is a legislator who has a desperate "local" interest involved.

This, of course, is what the Governor has in mind in mid-summer when he called former Welfare Secretary Arlen Adams from his busy Philadelphia law practice to serve as spokesman for a task force that was supposed to "sell the urgency of the programs—and thereby the need for new taxes—to the general public.

It was a front committee, of course, and it is doubtful that any of its members spent more than an hour and twenty minutes actually studying the problem. Their major contribution was to lend their names to a couple of press releases. One, an eastern Pennsylvania College president, took the task seriously enough to make a phone call to Rep. Samuel Frank, the peppery

Allentown Democrat. He got an ear blistering "for trying to do my job for me."

Ironically, legislators here have been mulling, studying, debating and agonizing over the state's fiscal problems all year. They will, obviously not have the answers. Thus, it is a strange world indeed when the busy Mr. Adams—much too busy to continue as a cabinet officer—can pontificate over the tremendous detail involved in the State's fiscal document, and turn up on the winning side!

Horse trading will prevail here during September, and there will be new taxes, and increases in the existing taxes. Now in the House hopper is an average of $100 million in proposed taxation—a grab bag from which lawmakers can pick and chose.

Legislators by legislators—special interest by special interest—the projects will pass on to victory, along with $300 million in new or expanded taxes they'll need to pay for the package.

Letter To The Editor

Editor
Times Mirror & Observer
Warren, Pa.

Dear Sir:

After reading the letter to you regarding the recent presentations by the Plovright Summer Theater Group, namely "Who's Afraid of Virginia Woolf," "Streetcar" and "Two for the See Saw" I was tempted to add my "two-bits". However, I managed to suppress the desire in order not to start a controversy. Now I see that others have reacted to the letter from Non-Puritan so I guess it is open season.

I, also, was one of those who attended these presentations and thought that they were well done. These plays did indeed portray the cheapest and sorriest strata of human life, of which, I am sure Non-Puritan knows, we have an over abundance.

From the tone of a conversation going on in the seats behind me during one of these plays I suspect Non-Puritan and party were sitting behind me! In any case, one of this party had enough liquor on his breath to cause me to think of changing my seat. However, I made up my mind to grin and bear it and enjoy the play. After all "booze" too is a part of life (as all of these plays portrayed) whether we like it or not, and people who indulge in it will sometimes offend others just as will foul language and profanity. This though, is life as it is, and we are obliged to accept it or become a hermit.

So I think we are agreed that life is often "cheap and sorry" and it would be nice if we could protect our children from this seamy side of the picture, and just let them learn of the "nice" side, but I am afraid they like their parents before them, will have to take the bitter with the better. My congratulations to the Summer Theater Group for their presentations of the bitter and although I am sure they appreciated my attendance, I did so of my own volition as I am sure did Non Puritan.

Signed - "Non Tee Totaller"

Roles In Asia

When the war is over (even an unending war has to end sometime) and an independent government emerges in both Saigon and Vietnam, what kind of Asia will this new Asia be? The Saigon elections and the war are, after all, to be viewed as parts of the longer-range changes in Asia as a whole.

One can say three things about these changes with some confidence. First, China will continue to grow as a Communist power, but the present murderous civil struggle in which it is plunged will determine how agonized that growth will be. Second, Japan will play an ever larger role in Asia—in economic strength, in trade and by the force of its example as a modern democracy.

Third, the non-Communist strength of Asia will be enough to enable it to meet the expansionist thrust of China with little continued American intervention.

There is an old-new demology operating in the mind of China's ruling elite. I call it old-new because for many centuries, rising to a pitch in the boxer rebellion of 1900, the Chinese have feared the "foreign devils." Today this anti-foreigner feeling has been renewed and is more frenzied than ever against the Russians, the Americans and the British. There is a manic quality in it which makes the stolid realm of diplomacy seem like a surrealistic nightmare.

But quite aside from the "foreign devils" there are demonic forces at work within China which show themselves in the struggle for mastery of China. Mao Tse-tung has two assets working for him—the fact of adulation and the fact of the Chinese H-bomb. The cult of Mao, especially by the adolescent Red Guards, is a fetishism of the leader that has gone beyond anything in Soviet history, even in the era of Stalin as ikon. But the very intensity of this cult estranges the other elites from Mao—those that count, especially the factory workers, technicians and scientists.

As for the bomb, it is chiefly important in Chinese national pride, and Mao may use it for a time as a form of political blackmail in Asia. But in the long run its principal use will be in jockeying for world position with America and Russia, operating either singly or together. In that kind of global politics Mao's current truculence will not be of advantage. A compromise leader of the type of Chou En-lai seems more likely to emerge to power in China by 1970.

Japan's future role is less cloudy. It will strengthen its world place as the third industrial power after the United States and ahead of West Germany, France and China. If the time ever comes for it to make a nuclear bid, it will have reversed the usual sequence and will have delivery systems (because of its rocketry advances) before it completes the H-bomb.

Japan's trade expansion will be mainly with both Chinas, Southeast Asia, Australia, Canada and Latin America. While doubtless it will soon recognize Communist China as well as trading with it, Japan is bound to play a very great part in the new consciousness of an Asia independent at once of Peking and Moscow and Washington.

The real problem in Japan will be that of the internal party structure. The best students of Japan's politics predict that the Liberal Democrats will have permanently lost their past majority hold over the government, but that the Socialists, deeply split on their Peking orientation, are unlikely to gain that hold. Nor will any of the three minor parties—the Communists, the Democratic Socialists or the new Komeito.

Thus, Japan is likely to have a shifting succession of coalitions, very much like the French Republic before Charles de Gaulle. Given Japan's bitter experience with a military authoritarianism, the chances of a Japanese De Gaulle emerging seem very slight.

This means there will be limits against drastic changes in Japanese foreign policy—which may prove healthy for Asia, since it will mean a stabilizing force. If Japan were clearly to join someday in a combination with Communist China, they could cast a huge shadow over Asia, but it is unlikely. If Japan were clearly to join, possibly along with India, a Concert of Powers comprising America and Russia and the important industrial nations, it of 0-20-20 fertilizer per 1000 sq. ft. should be worked into the same depth.

Skilled artisans of the Ivory Coast still carve the handsome elephant tusk figurines that gave their country its name.

"Mr. Rockefeller, have you ever thought of doing a 'single' . . . ?"

What They Think of Us

WASHINGTON — Captured enemy documents give a dismayingly distorted picture of the U.S. war effort in Vietnam. For, if the Communists actually believe their own secret reports, they expect to wear out American patience and win the war by default.

Here is what the North Vietnamese, according to their own statements, think of their American adversary:

1. U. S. leadership is confused. "American generals have been noisily arguing with one another" over the correct strategy to follow.

2. American forces are bogged down. "The more they struggle, the more they will get stuck. Therefore, throwing in more troops is like pouring water into sand."

3. They operate in a hostile environment. "They are fearful everywhere" and suffer from "heat, wind, rain and disease."

4. South Vietnamese soldiers are unreliable in battle and therefore pose a danger to U. S. forces operating with them. Communist documents describe them as "puppet troops" who are "cowardly" and might turn on U. S. troops.

5. "It is a strain on the Americans' wealth to fight the war in a distant land and the more they fight a protracted war the more they will be defeated . . . The Americans cannot win through a short war, and if they carry on a costly protracted war even a mountain of wealth would crumble."

6. Both American and South Vietnamese troops are plagued with bad "combat morale."

7. "American troops are numerous, but not many of them are combat troops . . . They have been spread out everywhere, but their positions are still vulnerable . . . Only one out of ten soldiers is used for offensive duties."

8. "U. S. infantry troops are of low calibre. Since the Americans venerate weapons and highly praise the power of their aircraft and warships, they consider the infantry to be of secondary importance."

9. "The American generals and field-grade officers are not thoroughly trained. . . . They have met with repeated defeats."

10. "The Americans' tactics are deadlocked . . . Tactics must be selected on the basis of the adversary's situation and not according to books. American troops have been organized and equipped on the American pattern. . . . Heliborne tactics and armed personnel carrier-borne tactics have all met with ill fate."

This astonishing assessment apparently is based upon faulty intelligence which they have received from their commanders in the field. There seems to be a tendency on the part of the politically-harassed field commanders to tell Hanoi what the leaders want to hear.

Typical is an "action report," classified "Top secret," which our troops captured from the Viet Cong. The report gives a detailed report to Hanoi on every phase of a recent operation against an American infantry unit. The battle is remembered by the Americans as "Operation Junction City II."

"On our side," boasts the enemy report, "this campaign was achieved by a great success. Our soldiers fought very well while our strength was limited. They fought continuously and killed many enemies in spite of the lack of replacements. This denoted the full determination to destroy the American and puppet troops of all cadre and soldiers after the political reorientation. This marked the maturity of our army in every aspect: development, training and combat."

The secret report to Hanoi summed up the casualties as follows: "Killed 4,522 of the enemy, including 3,719 Americans and 833 puppet troops. Ratio of casualties: enemy, 7.5; friendly, 1."

The truth is that the Viet Cong were routed, that only 115 Americans were killed and that the ratio was closer to 10 Communists killed for every American.

However, it isn't likely that the Hanoi high command will believe this column in preference to its own secret reports. Thus it is being persuaded by fiction from the field.

Note: Hanoi has launched another peace offensive, quietly spreading the word in Western capitals that its leaders are ready to sit down at the truce table if only the Americans will halt their bombing for a few weeks. No doubt the North Vietnamese would be willing to negotiate after a bombing pause. But if they persist in their misconception of the U.S. war effort they would insist upon unacceptable terms.

One of the bright young stars in the Senate is Indiana's able Sen. Birch Bayh, who must make ends meet on his Senate salary, lecture fees and a small income from a 320-acre farm. This may add up to a figure that would impress Hoosiers, but it is small by Senate standards. Therefore, he has been compelled to accept travel expenses from the Indiana Democratic party. A "Bayh for Senator" committee, financed largely by industrialist Mildos Sperling, also pays the salaries of two men in his Indianapolis office.

They are Jerry Udell, full-time, and Phil Bir, part-time.

This kind of arrangement can lead to trouble. Sperling, for example, has been a defense contractor. His former company, Merz Engineering, manufactured SU-14 antipersonnel bombs.

There is no reason to believe that Udell and Bir used their positions on the Senator's staff to help Sperling, who indirectly paid their salaries, get government contracts.

But the public is entitled to know who pays the people working in a Senator's office.

Conversational Counselling And Compost

Last week I discussed eleven easy steps to lawn building and then I got several calls that more details were necessary especially concerning the amount of lime and fertilizer and the kind of grass seed. Here it is in detail:

I. Rough grading is of course just a matter of common sense. It includes removing roots, debris, large stones, etc. and this should be done before any lime or fertilizer is applied.

II. Liming should be done according to soil test, but if a test is not made a general recommendation is to work into a depth of 4 inches 100 lbs. of ground lime per 1000 sq. ft.

III. At the same time the lime is applied, 50 to 75 lbs. of 0-20-20 fertilizer per 1000 sq. ft. should be worked into the same depth.

Skilled artisans of the Ivory Coast still carve the handsome elephant tusk figurines that gave their country its name.

IV. Peat moss, well-rotted sawdust, or well-rotted manure also needs to be added when working in sandy or tight clay ground. Finally the last step is to mulch with clean straw.

V. Now you're ready for a thorough mixing of the area. The job done in ten steps instead of eleven. I guess it's because I raked and rolled at the same time. At any rate I'm sure that this recipe will give you good results provided it doesn't rain too much, or get too dry, or the dogs don't dig it up, or the kids don't make a ball field out of it before it germinates, or—need I go on?

VI. Immediately before seeding, broadcast what we call "starter fertilizer" to a depth of one inch. This is a turf grade 10-5-5 or 10-6-4 and is needed to get the seedlings off to a fast start.

VII. You're ready now for the actual seeding. A mixture that works particularly well in Warren County includes red fescue 40 per cent and Kentucky bluegrass 60 per cent. This is seeded at a rate of 3 lbs. per 1000 sq. ft. Late summer to early fall is the best time for seeding a permanent lawn. The reason is simple—fewer weeds will germinate.

IX. Rake the seeds in no deeper than 1/4 inch and roll lightly worrying you too much.

Tax-Exempt Zoo

Remember I told you about the Episcopal Bishop of Washington who a month ago turned over a church for H. Rap Brown to teach hate in? Here is a parallel. Doc Hutchins, head of the Center for the Study of Democratic Institutions, and Keeper of the Dialogue, hosted a three-day meeting of students at which among other things it was proposed a) that "the institutions of this country must be destroyed;" and b) that "the dialogue wastes a lot of time . . . disruption (is) more advantageous."

The latest visitors to Mr. Hutchins' tax-exempt zoo were nineteen chameleons from the academy who met to discuss ways in which students might successfully assert themselves. Mr. Devereaux Kennedy, the student body president of Washington University in St. Louis called, in the words of an observer, "for out-right revolution and the overthrow of the United States government. He advocated terrorism on such a scale that it would 'demoralize and castrate America.'"

Mr. Stan Wise, who is secretary of Snick and a recent graduate of Howard University, boasted that his organization was "absolutely without doubt responsible for the race riots throughout the country." (This repeat, was a boast, not a confession.) "The only way to stop the war in Vietnam," Mr. Wise explained to Mr. Hutchins' attentive staff, "is to kill those institutions behind it."

Mr. Jeff Alexander from Harvard College was introduced as a moderate, and he merely proposed "the boycott of classes (as) the students No. 1 weapon and a boycott . . . on a nationwide scale to bring the university to a halt."

David Sealey of the University of California at Santa Barbara promised that "the revolution is coming. We're bound to destroy the university," he said gleefully. "Not pull it apart, brick by brick, but bring it to a complete stall." Young Mr. Sealey wore sandals and his hair "just short of the shoulder." His old man was a professor of sociology at Brandeis but is now a staff member of the Center for the Study of Democratic Institutions, and must have burst with paternal pride.

I almost forgot Mr. Saltonstall. Yes, Saltonstall of THE Saltonstalls. He is 23. And very optimistic. "We have," he said speaking for his fellow students, "the power to bring the American juggernaut to a halt. Let us paralyze the university; let us ball up the economy. One day soon, Congressmen and Presidents may petition us, not us them." He had a lot of specific proposals, such as immobilizing ROTC by breaking up drills and harassing instructors, stopping defense research by blocking government advisers from their offices and harassing them at home.

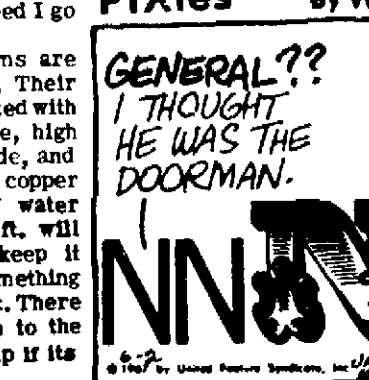

But surely Mr. Saltonstall's most interesting suggestion was "the introduction of a small quantity of LSD in only five or six government department coffee urns"—it "might be a highly effective tactic." Indeed. On the other hand, how do we know it hasn't been done already? How could you tell? Mr. Saltonstall is going on to graduate work at Yale, no doubt to replace the terrible void felt by the leave of absence granted to Staughton Lynd.

Some members of Mr. Hutchins' staff expressed themselves mildly in opposition to this or that position of this or that student, but they did not apparently make much of an impact, and were dismissed by one student as "quaint," which is not exactly how others would dismiss Mr. Hutchins and his staff.

Mr. Bruce Levine, from a New York high school, found Dr. Hutchins "naive," which is one way of putting it. One center consultant, Mr. Scott Buchanan, expressed "anger". He thought the students were "playing house with the idea of power." "You act," he said, "like children. I get a little frightened."

Ah yes. But what is frightening is that a center staffed by apparently civilized people should sponsor three days of such types. As for the children I think of Mr. Russell Kirk's suggestion that increasingly he is tempted to find a Birch John Society.

D-J Still over 900 As Summer Ends

(c) N. Y. Times News Service
NEW YORK — Wall Street's summer ended yesterday with the Dow Jones industrial average remaining slightly above the 900 level.

Volume on the New York Stock Exchange returned to the quiet pre-holiday pattern with 7.46 million shares traded, following Thursday's 8.84 million. This brought the week's trading to 36.14 million shares, the smallest for a full week since last Nov. 5.

After the market closed, the United Auto Workers union said that Ford would be struck if no contract is signed Sept. 6 and bargaining between the two parties began last night. Ford Stock, nevertheless, was one of the two automakers to rise yesterday, gaining 1/4 to 51. American Motors rose 1/2 to 14 3/4, while General Motors fell 1/2 to 81 1/2 and Chrysler declined 1/2 to 49 1/2.

Market indicators were mixed. The Dow fell 0.11 to 901.18. The New York Times average of 25 industrials and 25 rails fell 0.42 to 532.45. Standard & Poor's index of 500 stocks gained 0.04 to 93.68.

The American Stock Exchange made its third consecutive advance while trading volume continued to slump. The stock index rose 13 cents to $21.40. During the week the index climbed

Countdown to Kickoff

DRAGONS

Warren Area High School Head Coach Toby Shea said he was "pleased" with the Dragons' showing in yesterday's scrimmage with Punxsutawney here. In a rugged, hard-hitting battle, the Blue and White recorded two scores to one for the visitors, that on a screen pass that covered about 60 yards, but the officials ruled Punxy had interior linemen downfield on the play.

Halfback Danny O'Neil crossed the goal line twice for the Dragons. On Warren's third offensive series, O'Neil hit over his left tackle, found daylight and sprinted about 70 yards for the score. "Dangerous Dan" also intercepted a Punxy aerial on the first play following the visitors' TD later in the scrimmage and carried it back up the sideline from about 25 yards out.

Defensively, the Dragon line did a good job stopping Punxy backs, although some yardage was gained over the left side of the Warren line. Tackle Darrell Pusateri and end Ray Lowe did an effective job in stopping the wide plays and linebackers John Marchione and Steve Tundel showed excellent pursuit.

EAGLES

Youngsville worked on both offensive and defensive line play yesterday morning, then held a no-pads practice in the afternoon in preparation for today's scrimmage at Corry, and not on the Eagle field as reported yesterday. It's slated to start about 9:30-10 a.m.

Concentration was on the passing game and on kickoffs and punts. There were no serious injuries on the squad.

KNIGHTS

Eisenhower concentrated on extra points and new plays yesterday as they finished their first week of contact practice. The morning session began with calcs and then scrimmage centered around extra points. Yesterday's chalk-talk featured defensive play and a study of new offensive plays.

The new plays were then run at the afternoon session with the Knights in full pack. Today's practice will be an intra-squad scrimmage where the Knights will polish their work of the past week.

WOLVERINES

Sheffield High held a light workout yesterday morning in preparation for last night's scrimmage at Union City. Results of the scrimmage will be reported in Tuesday's "Countdown".

Joe for Minors

PERKSKILL, N.Y. (AP) — The New York Jets of the American Football League signed fullback Billy Joe and assigned him to their Waterbury, Conn., farm club yesterday.

Joe, 26, cut earlier by the Miami Dolphins, was AFL rookie of the year with Denver in 1963 before being traded to Buffalo and then Miami.

Linebacker John Elliott, a rookie from Texas University, was lost for New York's Sept. 10 opener against Buffalo when he fractured a collarbone in Thursday's exhibition loss to the Bills 31-23. However, injured linebacker Larry Grantham and ends Don Maynard and George Sauer are expected to be ready for the opener.

Sayers-Led Bears Romp Over Cards

CHICAGO (AP) — Gale Sayers rattled off two early touchdowns including a 72-yard romp on the first play of the second quarter last night to fire the Chicago Bears to a 42-14 victory over the St. Louis Cardinals in a National Football League exhibition game.

The victory was the first for the Bears after three exhibition losses.

Guided by quarterback Larry Rakestraw, who spent most of the last four seasons on the taxi squad, the Bears rolled to a 35-0 lead before allowing the Cardinals to score in the final minute of the first half.

Three times they intercepted passes by Jim Hart, filling in for Charlie Johnson who is serving a stint in the Army, and all three times went in for touchdowns.

Sayers, who gained 100 yards in 10 attempts, sat out most of the game after his 72-yard touchdown jaunt.

Rakestraw, who tossed a 33-yard touchdown pass to Brian Piccolo and ran for scores from 15 and four yards, didn't play in the second half.

The Cardinals, suffering their third exhibition loss against one triumph, didn't get into Chicago territory until the closing minutes of the first half.

Trailing 35-0, Hart guided the Cardinals from their own 25 into the Bear end zone, topping the drive with a four-yard scoring pass to Johnny Roland with 14 seconds left.

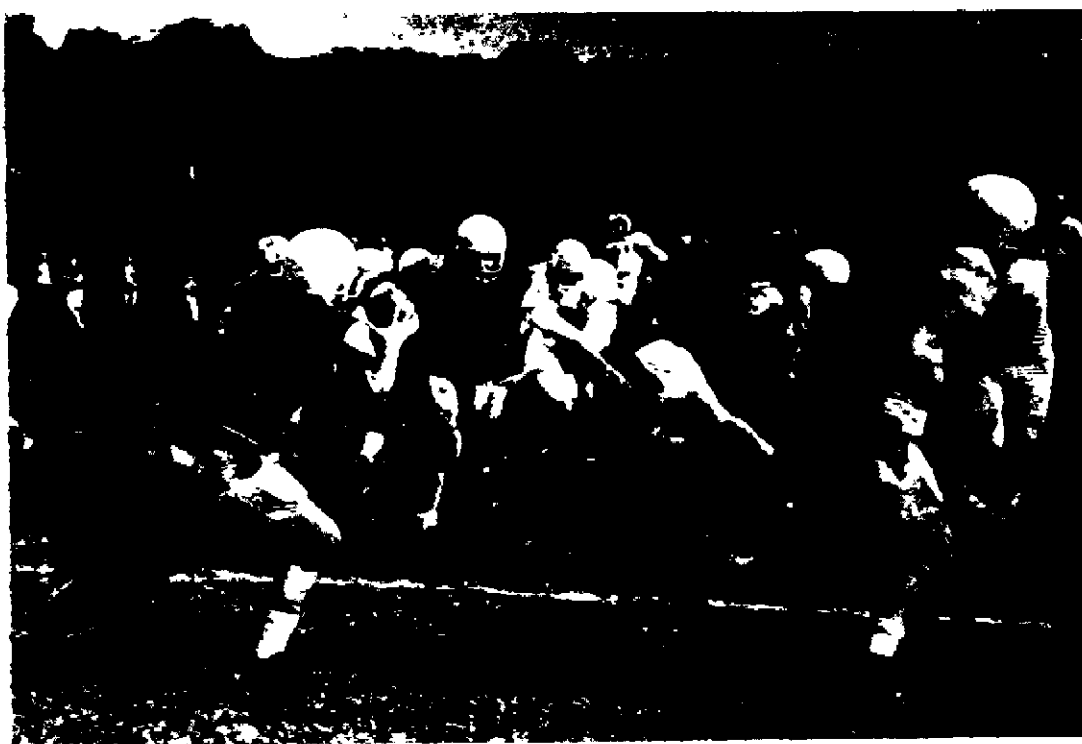

After a scoreless third quarter, Rudy Bukich hit rookie Bob Jones with a 43-yard touchdown pass to make it 42-7.

The Cardinals came right back with a 29-yard scoring strike from Hart to Sonny Randle.

ANAHEIM (AP) — The Cleveland Indians held a 3-2 edge over California after seven innings here last night. The Tribe scored two in the top of the seventh after trailing 2-1 to take the lead.

Nichols Remain Unbeaten In Tourney; SOI's Alive

Nichols Service Center broke a scoreless deadlock in the last of the seventh inning last night to nip Warren Beverage, 1-0 and remain the only undefeated team in the City Softball League's year-end tourney.

Bob Larson, Nichols' first batter in the frame, doubled and rode home on a single by Paul Johnston to end the contest.

In the nightcap of the twinnail at Carbon Memorial Field, Sons of Italy rallied to whip Warren Auto Clinic, 8-4, with Jim Sturdevant sparking the Clubmen both at bat and on the mound.

The tournament concludes tonight with Warren Beverage meeting Sons of Italy in a 6 p.m. contest and Nichols taking on the winner in the finals at 7:30. A Nichols loss would necessitate another game to decide the title, which would be played at 9 p.m.

Last night's triumph by Nichols featured outstanding defensive play, highlighted by a key twin-killing in the top of the sixth.

Bob Winterburn led off the frame for Beverage by drawing a walk. An infield fly put one away, but Chick Stewart singled and Jack Lobdell looked at four balls to lead the bases.

Hud Berline, the next batter, hit a grounder to Larson at third and he fired to catcher Jack White to force Winterburn at the plate. White relayed the ball to first baseman Tom LeTrent to complete the double play and end the inning.

Until Nichols' lone run in the seventh, Jim McMeans of the Servicemen and Beverage's Dean Stewart were locked up in a pitchers' duel.

Stewart threw no-hit ball until the fifth, when McMeans opened with a single. LeTrent also hit safely in the sixth, but was out stealing, then Nichols put two together in the seventh for the lone run.

Beverage had men on every inning, but couldn't score them, stranding eight men.

McMeans gave up a total of

Mets' Manager

NEW YORK (AP) — Whitey Herzog, former Mets coach and now on special assignment with the club, will replace Wes Westrum as manager of the New York National League baseball club next season, the New York Post said yesterday.

Columnist Milton Gross said the change would be made at the end of the season by General Manager Bing Devine.

There was no immediate comment from the Mets' officials, with the team in Chicago.

"Last week that very same columnist had Alvin Dark as our new manager. Now I've got to wonder who he will nominate for the job next week."

Devine then added: "I'm still sticking with my original plan to wait until the end of the season before any decision is made whatsoever."

White Sox Recall

Nash from Minors
INDIANAPOLIS, Ind. (AP) — The Chicago White Sox recalled outfielder Cotton Nash from the Indianapolis Indians of the Pacific Coast League yesterday. Nash, a former basketball star at the University of Kentucky, hit 28 home runs and drove in 79 runs for Indianapolis with a .277 batting average.

AL Leaders Rout ChiSox; Pirates' Pitcher Fans 15

BOSTON (AP) — Ken Harrelson drove in four runs with a homer, triple and double as Boston broke loose from a week long batting slump to defeat Chicago 10-2 last night behind the steady pitching of Jose Santiago.

The victory enabled the Red Sox to maintain their slim grip on first place in the American League pennant race and pushed the fourth-place White Sox 2½ games off the pace. Harrelson belted a two-run triple in the first inning and the Red Sox jumped on ace White Sox left-hander Gary Peters for seven runs in the first two frames to sew up the decision early.

The lanky outfielder, signed by Boston last week after being released by Kansas City, hit his 11th homer with none on in the fifth and drove in another run with a double in the seventh.

The Red Sox, who had been averaging only slightly better than 1½ runs per nine innings for the past week and were held to two hits Thursday night, belated three Chicago pitchers for 13 hits.

Singles by Mike Andrews and Jerry Adair, Harrelson's triple and a single by Rico Petrocelli gave Boston four first-inning runs against Peters, 15-8, who had shut the Red Sox out 1-0 in 11 innings in his last start at Chicago on Sunday.

They came back in the second as Andrews' single, Adair's double and Carl Yastrzemski's bloop single scored one run and Reggie Smith singled to drive in two more.

Harrelson's homer made it 8-0 in the fifth, and he doubled home pinch runner Jose Tartabull in the seventh, then scored on Elston Howard's single to make it 10-0 before Chicago could get on the scoreboard.

Pirates-Phils

PITTSBURGH (AP) — Woody Fryman fired a three-hitter and struck out 15, leading the Pittsburgh Pirates to a 3-0 victory over Philadelphia Friday night.

Fryman, recording his third victory in 10 decisions, set a single game strikeout high for the Pirates this year, falling only one short of Bob Veale's club record of 16.

The Pirates gave the hard throwing left-hander the only run he needed in the second inning on a walk, Jose Pagan's single, a force play at second and Cookie Rojas' error. Singles by Fryman, Maury Wills and Matty Alou produced another run in the fourth and Bill Mazeroski's run scoring double in the eighth wrapped it up.

Cards-Astros

ST. LOUIS (AP) — Lou Brock hit a homer and scored two runs and Nelson Briles scattered eight hits, leading St. Louis to a 5-0 victory over Houston last night.

Brock hit his 16th homer of the year on rookie Bruce Von Hoff's first pitch and Jim McCarver singled off reliever Dave Eilers for two more runs in the fifth after the Astros intentionally walked Orlando Cepeda to fill the bases.

Briles, 10-5, was nipped for at least one hit in every inning until the eighth but stranded all nine runners.

The Cardinals scored a run off Von Hoff, 0-2, in the third inning on a walk to Dal Maxvill and singles by Flood and Bobby Tolman. Maxvill squeezed Shannon home with another run in the fourth.

Twins-Tigers

MINNEAPOLIS-ST. PAUL (AP) — Minnesota capitalized on four Detroit errors to hand Jim Kaat a three-run lead in the early innings and the big left-hander hurled the Twins to a 5-4 victory over the Tigers last night.

By winning, the Twins remained one-half game behind American League-leading Boston. The third-place Tigers tumbled two games back.

Eddie Mathews, the veteran third baseman acquired by the Tigers for his hitting in the stretch run, contributed two errors in the first inning, when Minnesota counted a pair of unearned runs.

Then Willie Horton and Jim Price were guilty of errors in the third, when the Twins scored twice more to take a 5-2 lead.

Kaat, who checked the Tigers on seven hits to record his 10th victory against 13 losses, gave back one of the unearned runs, throwing wildly to first in the Tigers' two-run second.

Minnesota batters drove in only two runs—on Cesar Tovar's single and pinch hitter Rich Rollins' sacrifice fly in the third.

Both runs in the first inning came home on errors by Mathews. Kaat doubled in the second, went to third on a groundout and scored on a wild pitch by Tiger starter Joe Sparrma, now 13-8.

Dick McAuliffe and Mathews drove in Detroit runs with singles, and Bill Freehan's lead-off homer in the ninth narrowed the gap.

Dodgers-Braves

ATLANTA (AP) — Al Ferrara's fifth-inning home run, the third of the game for Los Angeles, snapped a tie and sent the Dodgers to a 6-4 victory over Atlanta last night.

Successive home runs in the fourth inning by Bob Bailey, his fourth of the year, and Willie Davis, his third, had given the Dodgers a 4-2 lead before the Braves tied the score in the bottom of the fourth.

Ferrara's game winning home run was his 14th of the season.

The Dodgers added one run in the top of the eighth to insure the decision. A double by John Roseboro scored Wes Parker from first base after Parker's single with one out.

Joe Torre drove in two runs for the Braves, one with his 15th homer of the season in the fourth, Hank Aaron and Woody Woodward drove in one run each.

Yanks-Senators

NEW YORK (AP) — Mike Hegan's first major league homer—a two-out blast in the 12th inning—gave the New York Yankees and southpaw Fritz Peterson a 2-1 victory over Washington Friday night.

Peterson checked the Senators on four hits in going the distance for his 15th victory against 13 defeats.

Dick Lines, 1-4, who relieved Phil Ortega in 11th was the victim of Hegan's homer.

The Senators bunched two of their hits in the third and tied the score. Ed Brinkman led off with a single, Ortega sacrificed

Mets-Cubs

CHICAGO (AP) — Veteran Don Cardwell yielded only five hits and struck out 11 in pitching the New York Mets to a 3-0 victory over the Chicago Cubs on the second game of a double-header yesterday.

The Cubs won the opener 8-2 as Ferguson Jenkins recorded his 17th victory. Ron Swoboda and Bob Johnson homered for the only Mets' runs.

Cardwell, who had been on the disabled list with a sore arm, picked up his first victory as a starting pitcher since May 26. He had won one game in relief since then. His won-loss record is 5-9.

The Mets scored their first two runs in the second inning on a walk, singles by Swoboda and Jerry Buchek, a sacrifice fly by Jerry Grote plus an error by centerfielder Adolfo Phillips.

Billy Williams, Ron Santo and Ernie Banks each drove in two runs for Chicago in the opener. Santo singled in the first of two in the first inning and capped a three-run rally in the seventh with an RBI hit.

Jenkins' complete game was his 18th in 32 starts. He has lost 10 games.

Orioles-A's

KANSAS CITY (AP) — Curt Blefary's run scoring single in the ninth inning gave Baltimore a 2-1 victory over Kansas City last night.

L. QTY Haney left off the inning with a single off Jim "Catfish" Hunter, 11-14, and Sam Bowers ran for him but was caught off second on Luis Aparicio's grounder after being sacrificed along.

Aparicio went to second on the play, however, and came in on Blefary's single.

The Athletics scored a run off Pete Richter, 9-13, without a hit in the first inning when Bert Campaneris walked, stole his 46th base, went to third on John Donaldson's sacrifice bunt and scored on Mike Hershberger sacrifice fly.

Baltimore tied the score in the second on Brooks Robinson's single and Dave Johnson's double off Hunter.

Sara Hill Eaton Pledges Marriage Vows In Manhattan

Miss Sara Hill Eaton, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. Pierson Eaton, of 216 Jefferson Street, became the bride of Daniel Mosner, son of Gabriel Mosner, of Parkchester, New York, and the late Mrs. Mosner, on Thursday morning at 10 o'clock, August 31. The double ring ceremony was performed by Rabbi Harvey Tattelbaum at the Village Temple in Manhattan before an altar decorated with vases of white chrysanthemums.

The bride was gowned in white peau de soie and carried a cascade bouquet of white roses and ivy. The opal drop earrings she wore were those of her bridegroom's mother, Miss Julie Mosner, a sister of the bridegroom, was the maid of honor in a gown of pink Benares silk. The bridesmaid was Miss Lucinda Henning, of New York, a 1966 graduate of Warren Area High School, who wore pale blue Benares silk. They carried cascades of pink roses, blue Dutch iris, and ivy.

Andrew Pinkowitz, of New York, was the best man.

Mrs. Eaton wore a beige silk coat over a flowered dress, with a cymbidium orchid corsage, for her daughter's wedding.

ding. Mrs. John E. Hill, of Warren, the bride's grandmother, and Mrs. Irvin Grinberg, of Great Neck, N. Y., the grandmother of the bridegroom, were remembered with corsages of deep red roses.

A reception and buffet luncheon for sixteen took place at the Hotel St. Regis after the wedding. Miss Elizabeth Janet Eaton, sister of the bride, served as an aide. Guests included the bridegroom's younger sister, Erica, Mrs. Vera Kulick, of Riverdale, N. Y., and her daughter, Miss Diane Kulick.

Mrs. Mosner was graduated from Warren Area High School in the Class of 1965 and attended New York University. ## Hints From Heloise

DEAR HELOISE:

I have new motto.

It is, "Look before you spray." I decided to do this after I sprayed my little girl's hair with spray starch instead of the hair spray that was sitting near it.

I told a neighbor what I'd done, and she said she had sprayed her warm oven with furniture wax! Then had to use three different oven cleaners to get it off!

Hazel Grow

Hazel, I agree with you 200%.

Manufacturers go to great lengths putting directions and cautions on their products.

Yet, when we don't follow them we get mad when the stuff doesn't work, or we are injured due to misuse.

So, let's adopt Hazel's motto and "Look before you spray." This is a good safety hint.

Both you gals were lucky you didn't use a can of spray paint. Wouldn't THAT have been awful?

Heloise

DEAR HELOISE:

After making a dress with a new pattern, I save a scrap of the material and pin it to the pattern before putting it away.

Then when selecting a pattern later, I can recall by that scrap of material if I liked the dress well enough to use the same pattern again.

A New You by Emily Wilkens

Focus On Fashion

Suppose a genie-like camera suddenly popped up out of nowhere and snapped a candid photo of you before you had time to race into your room to make repairs. Would the finished photo show a tousled figure in faded jeans, rumpled shirt and run-down loafers? If so, now is the time to focus on fashion.

Money isn't everything. Just think of all the expensively dressed "girls" of all ages you've seen in your own home town—bedizened with tons of jewelry, spike-heeled shoes and fussy dresses.

Next, conjure up your favorite fashion model. Did dollars make her perfect or was it the understated look of elegance for which really chic women are famous?

It doesn't take a king's ransom to be well-dressed. What it does take is taste, natural or acquired, and careful planning, always keeping in mind the styles, colors and fabrics that do the most for you. To get a sharp fashion photo, here are a few guides that will cover you, clothes-wise, in all situations.

LOOK-AGAIN LOUNGING

It's Saturday morning. The doorbell rings. You dash to the door enveloped in your vintage dingy raincoat with several inches of trailing fringe showing beneath, feet encased in ultra-scruffy slippers. True, it might only be that nice, understanding delivery man with a package, but can you be 100 per cent sure? Didn't you promise Andy that he might drop in for brunch with the family anytime he felt like it? Why not replace your "morning fatigue" array with a bright brunch coat, shift or slacks and coordinating top?

SUPER STYLES FOR SUPER MARKETS
Your shopping togethery might well be food for thought. If you generally buy your corn flakes looking like the water boy on a football team, resolve right now to make the shopping aisle your fashion runway while parading a model marketing outfit. (You never know what marvelous male may be lurking behind the canned soups).

Wouldn't a simple shirtwaist, skirt and matching top, or fresh-pressed shirt and slacks be better than that too-long skirt and old shirt you borrowed from your mother because all your casual tops were buried at the bottom of the laundry bag?

Look like a super-shopper and that cute boy at the check-out counter will give you a smile instead of a grimace that says you're Miss Frump of 1967.

PREPARE FOR SCHOOL
Some girls are lucky. Their schools insist on uniforms, so that students never have clothes woes. If you're not amongst the lucky ones, use your ingenuity and come up with a uniform of your own—two well-cut skirts in fine fabrics to pair with a few shirts, blouses and sweaters in compatible colors. Add extra skirts and tops in neutral colors when your budget permits. Separates multiply, just like hangers in a closet.

DATING DO'S AND DON'TS

A basic, really good dress, one which makes you feel utterly marvelous, is a must for date-time dressing. Shop around for it, find one you absolutely adore, and you'll always have a friend in your closet. Avoid fussy details, seasonal fabrics such as velvet, and overly dressy styles. Your gem should be simple enough to dress up or down easily.

Make tasteful, appropriate dressing a signature of the "New You" and you'll always be in fashion focus.

JUST FOR YOU

If you so dislike a dress that you haven't worn it for the past two seasons, donate it to someone who'll love it more than you do.

Visitation Day Highlights at National Forge

Production starts here. This vessel has been filled with steel from the 45-ton furnace and has been to a purifier where gasses have been removed and alloys added. Here the steel is being cast into an ingot.

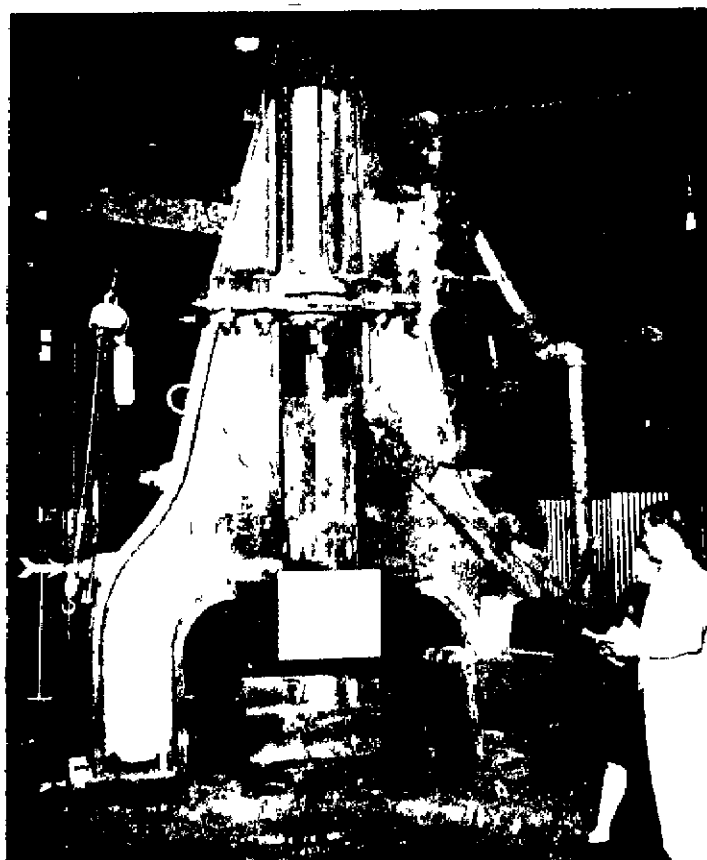

What once were ingots have been shaped and twisted into crankshafts. They now will be finished and tested.

One of the final touches to a crankshaft is to harden the bearing. Here the induction hardening method developed by National Forge engineers is being demonstrated. It has been heated electrically and is being cooled.

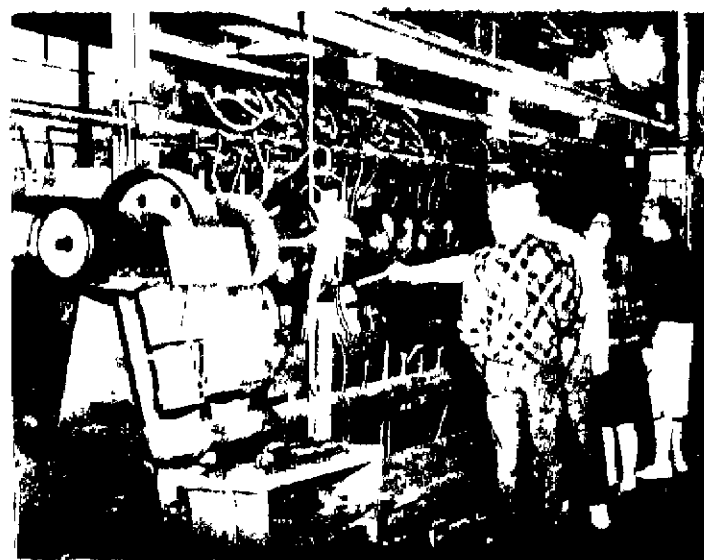

Pictures by Everett Stoke of the Family Day tour of the National Forge Company plant last Saturday reveal some of the key steps taken by the company in its progress since the last visitation in 1961. About 4,000 employees, retirees, and their families were guests of the company.

Still going is this hammer which was installed in the National Forge plant when it founded fifty-two years ago.

Boring still is a specialty in which the National Forge can not be excelled. A method developed by the founder of the company, Clinton L. Wilder, give the Irvine plant a great advantage.

Fast Field Slated for 500 Monday

By BLOYS BRITT
Associated Press Writer
DARLINGTON, S. C. (AP) — A field of cars and drivers that shapes up as the fastest ever for a Labor Day Southern 500-mile stock car race neared completion as eight more spots in the 44-car line-up were filled yesterday.

Darel Dieringer, frustrated for two days with blown engines, finally got his factory Ford into the starting order, and narrowly missed breaking Richard Petty's two-day old track record.

Dieringer, who won this event last year in a Mercury, turned four laps of the mile and three-eighths Darlington Raceway at an average of 143.426 miles per hour. It put him in the 17th starting position.

Petty, the Plymouth ace, won the front row pole spot Wednesday at 143.436 m.p.h. The old qualifying record of 140.058 was set last year by Lee Roy Yarborough.

With 24 cars qualified by the end of yesterday the remainder of the field will be completed today in the time trials and in a 20-lap qualifying race. The track then will be closed until Monday, 11 a.m. start.

Track officials said the 50-acre infield will be open to overnight campers at 6 p.m. tomorrow. A throng of 60,000 to 65,000 is expected for the 18th running of the oldest of the South's stock car endurance races.

Into the field, the average speed of the top 17 qualifiers was at 141.017 m.p.h., almost a mile an hour faster than Yarborough's record of last year.

Other qualifiers yesterday included John Sears, Ford, 138.665; Bobby Allison, Chevrolet, 137.921; Tiny Lund, Ford, 137.043; H. B. Bailey, Pontiac, 136.410; Doug Cooper, Ford, 134.996; Elmo Langley, Ford, 134.721; and Bill Champion, Ford, 133.594.

Cooper qualified the car Buck Baker hopes to drive at least for a few laps in Monday's race. Baker, a two-time national champion and winner of this race three times, has a broken ankle in a cast that reaches past his knee. NASCAR officials will decide whether Baker would be allowed to drive with this handicap. Baker has started each of the previous 17 Southern 500s.

New Orleans already has won three games — all in a row, incidentally — which is better than any other team has done in its first round of pre-season games.

GARY PLAYER'S GOLF CLASS:

Dickson Retains Amateur Tourney Lead at Halfway

COLORADO SPRINGS, Colo. (AP) — Bob Dickson, the Oklahoma cowboy who is the British Amateur champion, roped and tied the Broadmoor West course Friday with a second 71 and held a three stroke lead at the halfway point in the 1967 United States Amateur Championship.

The lanky, bespectacled Oklahoman, here on a week's pass from his military duties in New Mexico, could become the fourth man ever to take the British and U.S. titles in the same year. Harold Hilton, a Briton, did it in 1911; the immortal Bob Jones in 1930, and Lawson Little in both in 1934 and 1935.

Dickson rode through the sunshine that bathed the 6,946-yard course, where par is 35-35-70 and is deceptive because it nestles in the foothills of the Rocky Mountains, on a barrage of 11 pars and two birdies.

Dickson said his two 71s were different because on the first round he was putting for birdies on almost every hole. He got two birds on this round, the first coming on the fourth hole where a No. 7 iron approach left him with a one-foot putt. The last came on No. 12 where he ran down a nine-foot tap.

He was over par on the first hole when he three-putted from 50 feet and his second bogey came at the eighth where his

The Riverside Lassies Bowling League will meet at Riverside Lanes on Tuesday at 7 p.m.

All league officers, team captains and loop members are urged to be present.

PRO GRID WEEKEND:

Rookie Saints Meet Sophomore Dolphs

Dolphins, who began playing last year, didn't win any exhibition games in 1966 but are 2-2 this year.

Two other inter-league exhibition games are scheduled for tonight, Dallas at Houston and Pittsburgh at San Diego, while San Francisco and Oakland close out the 16-game inter-league series tomorrow.

Three NFL games were on today's schedule — Atlanta vs. Minnesota and Green Bay vs. Cleveland in a doubleheader at Cleveland and Philadelphia vs. New York at Princeton, N.J.

The AFL's regular season open tomorrow with Boston at Denver.

The Saints started life by losing a 16-7 struggle to Los Angeles. But since then they've defeated St. Louis 23-14, Pittsburgh 20-17 and San Francisco 24-10. One of the major factors in their success has been the play of the quarterbacks — Gary Cuzzo, Bill Kilmer and Gary Wood.

Discussing the trio, Coach Tom Fears said: "Cuzzo is cool and deliberate, plans everything well, has a fine arm and a fine understanding of what's happening. Kilmer's a real leader. He gets into the middle of things. When he sticks his head in the huddle, he motivates them, gets the adrenalin going."

"Wood's in between. Not quite as devil-may-care as Kilmer, not quite as conservative as Cuzzo."

The statistics of all three are impressive. Kilmer has completed 37 of 63 passes for 385 yards and five touchdowns; Cuzzo is 23 for 46 for 268 yards and one touchdown and Wood has completed 12 of 24 tosses for 159 yards but no scores.

Two of the other inter-league games match geographical rivals.

In the case of Dallas and Houston, both teams will be trying to get their offenses going. The Cowboys have failed to score a touchdown in two of their three exhibition games while the Oilers have tallied just 23 points in three games.

Oakland's good defensive secondary will get a test from San Francisco's John Brodie while Raider quarterback Darley Lamonia gets his last warm-up before starting his first regular season with Oakland.

Pittsburgh will be trying to make it three straight for the NFL over San Diego in the first night game at the Chargers' new stadium.

approach caught a trap and he missed a five-footer to ruin par. The studious 23-year-old was in another trap, one of four on his round, on the par 4 15th for his last excursion over regulation figures.

Dickson pinpointed a wedge shot on the 17th and a No. 7 iron on 1, his two best shots of the

Title Round At JVCC On Weekend

After six weeks of elimination matches, the Jackson Valley Country Club Championships will be determined over the long Labor Day weekend. Tomorrow and Monday the four golfers in each of seven flights for men and three flights for the ladies who have survived competition in their respective divisions will play for the title.

Eliminations have been on a match-play basis, but the four finalists in each flight will engage in medal play, 18 holes tomorrow and 18 more on Monday. Flight finalists and their tee-times are listed below.

Les Retteberg, club pro at JVCC announced Thursday that Tom Osborne won the trophy in the junior golf tournament held Tuesday and Wednesday with a net 147 for 36 holes.

Gerry Martin took low gross honors and Terry Ristau was runner-up.

LADIES

Championship flight (12:30 p.m.) — Min Shansala, Joan Swanson, Millie Manfrey and Neva Jenkins.

Second flight (12:45 p.m.) — Wanda Arnold, Muggs Greenlund, Gail Fees and Jane Jones.

Third flight (1 p.m.) — Anna Spafford, Marge Quackenbush, Bubbles Anderson and Norma Owen.

MEN

Championship flight (11:15 a.m.) — Bob Yerg, Denny Swan, Walt Thurnau and Bud Windott.

First flight (10:30 a.m.) — Don Veters, Dave Marinoble, Leo Salerno and winner of today's Phil Anderson-Gene Smith match.

Second flight (10 a.m.) — Ralph Pederson, Fred Swanson, Gib Reynolds and Bill Hamler.

Third flight (9:45 a.m.) — Gene Fogle, Blair Smoulder, Bill Sedon and Tom Triscari.

Fourth flight (9:30 a.m.) — Mush Svenson, Ken Greenlund, Ron McCain and winner of Bob Johnson-Carl Arnold match.

Fifth flight (11 a.m.) — Joe Rodgers, Harry Tourtellot, Bob Lind and Rich Ochunzio.

Sixth flight (10:45 a.m.) — Pat Hartnett and Al Zingone.

day. His ball stopped dead, one inch from the cup, on the 11th. Giles had 11 pars and four birdies and never missed a green until the 13th. He used only 31 putts.

"I hit the ball as well Saturday as I did today, I'll be in there," said Giles, "because I had only two bad shots on this round."

Oison's big spurge came on the 10th through the 13th, stroking three straight birdies, a par and then another birdie.

Because Wednesday's first round was washed out by drowned greens, two 18-hole rounds involving the 50 lows and ties will be played today.

The cutoff came at 156. The last four holes will be televised nationally, starting at 6:30 p.m., EDT.

Weather also forced three halts in Thursday's play and one-third of the field had to complete the first round Friday before starting the second.

Some players had to shoot 28 holes Friday.

The second round was played in ideal conditions and the changes in the scores were dramatic — and almost unexplainable. Bernie Woody of Denver, Colo., had a fog-shrouded 87 Thursday with a 70 in the second.

Dromettes Bowling Loop Opening Next Wednesday

Bowling for the Dromettes League will open Wednesday, September 6, at 9 p.m. at the Bowladrome in North Warren. All bowlers must pay the sanction fee of $1.25 on the first night of bowling.

The Dromettes League will consist of ten teams sponsored by various merchants. The teams for the league will be:

MILLERS — Frances Main, Rose Pirillo, Betty Mullen, Kathryn Johnson and Dorothy Atkin.

WARREN AUTO SUPPLY — Edith Metzger, Jo Mikan, Millie Nodzak, Audie Benson and Sandy Owens.

VOTY'S INSURANCE — Joyce Spicer, Kay Swanson, Doris Nobles, Bonnie Lucia and Erma Fritz.

Twins Take Battey, Clark off Disabled

MINNEAPOLIS-ST. PAUL (AP) — The Minnesota Twins yesterday took veteran catcher Earl Battey and rookie infielder Ron Clark off the disabled list.

Neither has seen much action this season. Battey, bothered by several injuries, has a .186 batting average. Clark started several games at third base early in the season before undergoing surgery on his right elbow.

Putting Lessons Helped Sikes Cop Carling Lead

WOODBRIDGE, Ont. (AP) — R.H. "Dick" Sikes, profiting from some putting advice, swept into the first round lead in the $200,000 Carling World Golf Championship yesterday with a three-under-par 68.

Gary Player of South Africa, who has won all the world's major professional champion - ships, and tour veteran Lionel Hebert, Lafayette, La., tied for second with 69s.

All were among the early finishers, and their scores stood the test of 145 professionals as the sun dried out the greens and made putting tricky and difficult for the late starters.

Sikes, 27, said he had taken some putting lessons from Bert Yancey and Dick Crawford early last week "and they straightened me out. I had been terrible."

Tony Jacklin of England, Chi Chi Rodriguez, Randy Glover and club pro Lee Trevino of El Paso, Tex., were tied for fourth with 70s. Two others came in with 71s.

Arnold Palmer had a 75, four over par, after taking 38 putts. Labron Harris, Stillwater, Okla., had a hole in one on the 150-yard, par 3 seventh hole.

Sikes' putting paid off on the gigantic and treacherous greens at the 7,024-yard Board of Trade Country Club.

He had three birdies of 12, 25 and 35 feet, took only 28 putts and saved par on the first and second holes with putts from 15 and 25 feet.

"The greens are really hard to putt," he said. Player and Hebert agreed.

"They are the toughest greens I have ever putted on anywhere in the world," Player said.

"You really have to have the ball in the right position on the green if you're going to have a real run on your putts for birdies," Hebert said.

Two Americans were disqualified during the first round and four others withdrew without going to the first tee.

Bob Shave of Hollywood, Fla., and Bob Goalby of Palm

Springs, Calif., both shot 80 and were disqualified for infractions during the signing of their score cards.

Mike Souchak and Bob Johnson did not show up at tee-off time, while Bobby Nichols withdrew because of a shoulder injury. Don January, the PGA champion, also withdrew.

Hebert birdied the 11th hole with a 25-foot putt, the 12th with a 12 footer and the 13th from 30 feet.

"I got into trouble on the 14th when I drove to the rough on the right side. There was a little tree there, and I hit it. I tried to hook around it and I got into the bunker and bogeyed the hole."

Hebert was in the water on the 15th and took a two-over-par 6.

He birdied the first hole with a four-foot putt and sank a 10-footer for his fourth bird on the ninth. He had teed off on the 10th hole and played the front nine last.

"It will require a lot of strategy to continue to play good golf on this course," Player used 32 putts during his round, missed only one fairway and two greens. "I don't think I can do it again," he said.

He carded three birdies and went one over par on the par 4 fourth hole.

His 20-foot birdie putt on the fifth hole hung on the lip of the

Thurgood Marshall Takes Oath for Supreme Court

WASHINGTON (AP) — Thurgood Marshall was sworn in Friday as a Justice of the Supreme Court and was presented with a Bible by Justice Hugo L. Black, who officiated.

Marshall, the great-grandson of a slave and the first Negro to serve on the nation's highest court, took the "constitutional" oath in a private ceremony held in Black's office at the Supreme Court building.

"I sorta' got sworn in," the new justice told a reporter when word of the secret session seeped out. All smiles, Marshall, 59, said he will begin work in his new job next Tuesday.

He smiled when asked why no announcement was made beforehand, calling the procedure "protocol."

Black, at 81 the court's oldest justice, presented the White Gideon Bible to his new colleague at the conclusion of the oath-taking.

He directed Marshall's attention to the passage: "And so abideth faith, hope, charity, these three; but the greatest of these is charity."

President Johnson named Marshall June 13 to succeed Tom C. Clark, who stepped down as a justice after his son, Ramsey, was named U.S. attorney general.

Several Southern senators attacked Marshall's selection but his nomination was approved by the Senate Wednesday on a 69-11 roll-call vote.

By Howard R. Faulkner, First Baptist Church, Warren, Penna.

The Apostle John, writing to the Churches in the book of Revelation, repeats a strange phrase "He who has ears to hear, Let him hear". He was suggesting that the degree of our understanding is governed by the degree of our "receptivity", that our grasp of the Christian Gospel is determined by the extent to which we are "intune" with spiritual things. Now this ought not seem strange to us who live in a world of radio and television. The air around us is vibrant and alive with voices, music, sights and sounds. These influences, all unseen and unheard, are moving through the walls of our homes and even through the cells of our bodies. If we are not getting them, it isn't because they are not real or that they are not there. However, we can not grasp them until we are tuned in on them. . . press a button or turn a dial . . . get on the right wave length. To get anything at all, the instrument of reception must be in tune with the sending instrument.

This is true in other areas of life. Two men sit side by side at a concert. The same music strikes both their eardrums. One is inspired while the other is bored. One is able to grasp the message intended by the composer but the other has never tuned in on an appreciation of music and so is made deaf to its beauty and meaning.

Or again; a certain man may fall asleep at a lecture (sermon?) though that lecture may be stimulating to others. But the next day that man is a tingle with interest as he watches the ticker-tape record the stock market. The lecture was not on his wave-length; the ticker-tape is. We hear what we listen for; we grasp what we respond to.

There are many ways of getting in tune with the Christian Gospel, of course. But one way is by public worship. Every Sunday in Church, an attempt is made to tune in on the Christian Gospel, to let it be made audible to our ears and visible to our eyes. We tune in on the mind of God, bring in to focus the world of ideals, think through the moral and ethical issues of life. These things are revealed to the attentive, to the responsive, to those who are in tune.

Paul tells us that "Spiritual things are spiritually understood". I think this means that man in his natural condition is not on God's wave-length, and so to use the words of Jesus needs a "new birth", a spiritual nature that can only become ours by a drastic change in the receiving instrument. This change is called "conversion", or "salvation", or "redemption", and is made possible only by faith. Faith, mind you, that is not just a mental belief in some historical facts about a man called Jesus, but an active faith which will appropriate or accept this Jesus as our Saviour and Lord.

In Holman Hunt's famous picture, Jesus stands knocking at the door of the human soul. But that is all He does. He will not storm the citadel. "Behold I stand at the door and knock". We must open the door. Often our preoccupation keeps us from hearing the knock; or hearing we fail to respond. And so we fail to understand the spiritual truths. . . not that they are not there, or are not real, just that we are not "in tune".

More Phoney Ads Received

Area residents and local business men are again receiving in the mail what appears to be a bill for Yellow Pages advertising, but is in fact a form soliciting advertising from local firms for a regional or national advertising directory.

A week and a half ago Bell ASCS Mails Ballots

Warren County Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation Service has mailed about 825 official ballots to all farmers in Warren County, to vote on candidates for the five Community Committees in the county.

The five candidates who receive the highest number of votes constitute the community committee. The nominee who gets the most votes is chairman; the one who gets second number is vice-chairman and the third is designated the regular member. Those receiving fourth and fifth most votes are first and second alternate community committeemen.

The three community committeemen from each of the five communities serve as delegates to the county convention to elect farmers to fill vacancies on the ASCS County Committee, with alternate community committeemen serving as alternate delegates.

All ballots must be postmarked or returned to the ASCS County office by Monday, September 18, 1967.

Voted ballots will be counted in public at the Courthouse basement in the conference room on September 20, at 10 a.m. Vote counting may be witnessed by any interested person.

The county convention will subsequently be held September 27 at 10 a.m. in the Courthouse basement conference room in Warren. This meeting is also open to the public, says Gerald G. Bensink, County ASCS office manager.

The five community committees are: Columbus-Spring Creek; Freehold-Sugar Grove; Farmington-Pine Grove; Elk-Warren; and Grand Valley-Pittsfield-Youngsville.

WORKERS MEET SEPT. 6

United Fund Gets Underway

The 1967 United Fund campaign for $166,000 will get underway on Wednesday, September 6, when workers in the "Pace Setters" of the organization will meet for instructions and assignments.

This section is beginning its work in advance of the official drive which opens on September 19. Corporations and individuals making major contributions to the annual appeal are among those contacted during the pre-campaign period and results of this advance effort are reported to the first kick-off on the 19th.

Donald H. Wischer, general chairman, said the results of the Pace Setters solicitation are most important since they set the stage for the entire campaign which follows.

A good response from advance gifts serves as an example and an incentive for other divisions. This year, Wischer said, a special emphasis is placed on fair share giving since the goal is 12 per cent more than the amount raised one year ago.

The volunteers working in the Pace Setters section are under the chairmanship of W.R. Walker and B.W. Knapp. Also attending the Wednesday luncheon will be heads of local business and industrial firms.

Wischer, who will be the main speaker at the luncheon, will explain the reason for this year's drive, which fell short of its objective.

Vote on Gibraltar

UNITED NATIONS, N. Y. — The Special Committee on Colonialism voted yesterday that the referendum Britain proposes to hold for the people of Gibraltar Sept. 11 to decide their political future would be a violation of past U.N. decisions and basic principles.

The 24-member committee's action amounted to endorsement of the Spanish stand that the residents of Gibraltar are not entitled, like other colonial peoples, to self-determination because they are not indigenous to the site.

All products are tested many ways, some of them involving equipment specially developed by National Forge personnel. Seen here is a temperature check.

Newest addition is the pressures testing division. In this well products of the National Forge or many made by other firms can be subjected to a hydraulic pressure of 200,000 pounds per square inch.

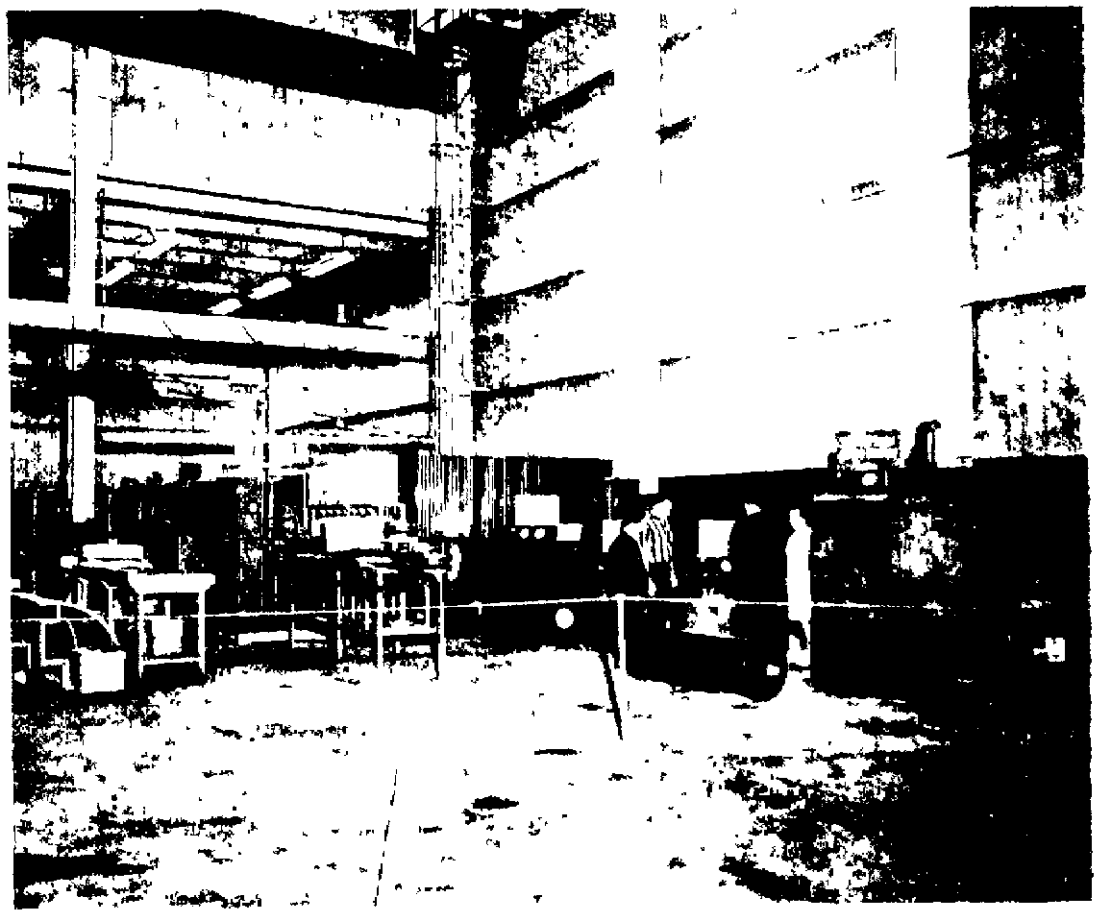

Television is used in the pressure testing area. This control unit allows the operator to see what goes on inside the well and also receive a constant recording of data.

A movie of the National Forge production and displays of its products were seen in the refreshment tent.

And whether you work or just look this spot always is welcome.

Pressure testing equipment also is made for others. Here are some that are going to Norton Company, Ford Motor Company, and plants in Belgium and Japan.

Kinzua Country Fails to Fulfill Rec Needs

The Kinzua Country... a land of promise!

Or should it be "a land of promises?"

For as the maiden year of the Kinzua Dam as a recreational wonderland and outstanding tourist attraction draws to a close this Labor Day weekend, it is fully apparent that much that has been promised over the past five years has failed to materialize to date and the time when these promises will be fulfilled is highly indefinite.

The area of greatest disappointment has been in boating and camping facilities. For while the need for such facilities was foreseen a full decade ago, visitors to the dam area this year were amazed to find too little done toward meeting the demands in these two obvious needs.

The Wolf Run Marina, a facility proclaimed as a quarter-million dollar investment that would be 75 per cent completed by June 1, 1967, remains a primitive setup where most boats are required to use buoys for mooring, where parking lots are a morass of mud, the access road is steep, rough and narrow, and rental equipment is far below the standards that were set in the prospectus that outlined the requirements for this facility.

The Roper Hollow boat launching facility, built by the Corps of Engineers, and an outstanding example of the kind of facilities users of the dam should expect, is rendered almost useless because of a poor approach road. And the Willow Bay complex, also built by the Corps of Engineers, can only be reached by a devious highway course from the immediate area of the dam site.

Some camping has been permitted at both Kiasutha and Willow Bay during the past few months, but in general the tourist arriving at the dam site with trailer or camper has been faced with a long drive to find accommodations suitable to his needs.

National publicity has placed an exceptionally heavy strain on the recreational use of the Kinzua Dam this season and it can be said without fear of contradiction that many of the visitors left the area highly disappointed.

If the future held some promise that conditions would improve, many of the inadequacies could be overlooked. But with the development funds of the Allegheny National Forest (the agency charged with the development of recreational facilities at the dam) reduced for the current year the future offers little hope.

Only a concerned public, stripped of the apathy that presently persists, can ever correct existing conditions and bring about the developments that can and will make the Kinzua Country a land of promise.

BRIGHT SPOT

One of the few bright spots in the otherwise dreary picture is the beach and picnic area at Kinzua Point. This area which was recently opened to public use is located at the east end of the Cornplanter Bridge. It is open from 11 a. m. to 8 p. m. and a fee of $1 per car is charged for admission.

BEHIND SCHEDULE

The information booth being constructed at a point looking north over the former village of Kinzua location was supposed to be in use early this summer. Its completion and opening date is still a question.

ROAD CLOSED

Remaining closed at the end of the 1967 season is the access road leading from Route 59 (and the vicinity of the Kinzua Dam) to Kiasutha and the upper end of the Kinzua arm. Parts of this road have been under construction for the past four years.

COVER PHOTO

This access road to the Wolf Run Marina is long, steep and rocky; reminiscent of county roads in the pre-Pinchot days in Pennsylvania. The condition could have been corrected, in a few hours with a bulldozer so that two-way traffic would have been possible and the grade reduced.

ACCOMMODATIONS LIMITED

Although the Wolf Run Marina was scheduled for 75 per cent completion by June 1 of this year, accommodations for boaters there remain "primitive" and inadequate.

Your Horoscope

Look in the section in which your birthday comes and find what your outlook is, according to the stars.

FOR SATURDAY, SEPTEMBER 2, 1967

ARIES (March 21 to April 20)--Achievement is not exclusive to anyone, so wherever you can make a new mark, no matter how many are competing, get in the race, capitalize on your talents and go forward.

TAURUS (April 21 to May 21)--Ease up tensions that may exist. You can make considerable advancement now, but a well balanced program will be important. Look for REAL values.

GEMINI (May 22 to June 21)--Fine Mercury influences now stimulate your mental agility and keen perception. Take the reins firmly in hand and go straight and sure along YOUR path. Success can be yours.

CANCER (June 22 to July 23)--Past wise investments should now be showing earnings, but do not rest on your laurels. Strike out for bigger and better attainment.

LEO (July 24 to August 23)--You can do more in an enduring and substantial way than you may think at first. Do not compound complexities or suffer anxiety about the outcome of things. Look up---and onward!

VIRGO (August 24 to September 23)--A new level of competence can be attained now. Leave no stone unturned in your quest for knowledge, data and correct approach for anticipated successes. The rest is for the striving.

LIBRA (September 24 to October 23)--Note past performances both good and bad--so as not to repeat old errors. This is a day which calls for clear-sighted action and the Libran's innate strength in the face of odds.

SCORPIO (October 24 to November 22)--You can benefit in small ways now, such as working out a strategy to forestall errors, maintaining silence when aggravated and keeping well poised in all situations.

By Frances Drake

SAGITTARIUS (November 23 to December 21)--Give close scrutiny to all new propositions, and be sure you understand their "whys and wherefores." Take the efficient road, and capitalize on your talents to the best of your ability.

CAPRICORN (December 22 to January 20)--Look for the "loopholes" that trick needlessly, be alert to misrepresentation; sift carefully for truths. If sure you are on the right path, you can go ahead confidently--and profitably.

AQUARIUS (January 21 to February 19)--The position of Uranus now encourages well-organized moves but you will need a certain amount of resourcefulness to unravel "mysteries." Do not let duplicity fool you, nor think it exists where it does not.

PISCES (February 20 to March 20)--Adopt a no-son-of-a-bitch policy if you would net top rewards now. A good day to try out new methods, ideas.

YOU BORN TODAY, have a bright mind and willingness to work for your goals, which are usually estimable. You enjoy get-togethers with good friends, travel, and learning. Your life can, should, be most useful, happy. But the Virgoan tends to fret, to fear, and to think that things are not going as well as they should. One way to avoid this distressing condition is to overlook criticism in its first stages and to keep your mind on your blessings rather than on failures or errors. Virgoans are noted for their steadfastness, artistry, powers of recuperation and zeal. Birthdate of: Henry George, political economist.

How to Keep Well

By Dr. T. R. Van Dellen

(c) 1967 by The Chicago Tribune

To the limit of space, questions pertaining to the prevention of disease will be answered. Personal replies will be made when returned stamped envelope is inclosed. Telephone inquiries not accepted. Dr. Van Dellen will not make diagnoses or prescribe for individual diseases.

+ DIVERTICULITIS

Diverticula are pea-sized pockets in the intestinal wall. These outpouchings usually develop in the last part of the large intestine. Approximately 40 per cent of persons age 40 and older harbor from one to a hundred of these lesions.

Since the frequency increases with age we suspect that degeneration of the tissues of the bowel wall is causative. The protrusions tend to occur most often at a point where the blood vessel pierces the wall of the colon--a site considered to be the weakest spot. Spasm and irritation of the large intestine also play a role. When the bowel clamps down in one part pressure on adjacent segments increases and tends to push out weakened spots. Taking an enema or excessive use of purgatives over the years also induces pressure.

The pocket causes no trouble unless it becomes infected (diverticulitis). In most instances this is followed by dull, colicky pain in the lower abdomen on the left side. Tenderness, malaise, fever, and a high white blood count ensue in some sufferers. Rupture of the pocket may lead to an abscess of peritonitis.

The majority are never bothered and the condition is discovered when X-rays are taken for other reasons. Some have only one attack of diverticulitis and with intelligent care never suffer a recurrence. Others have repeated episodes of inflammation including complications. In some, surgery is needed to remove that portion of the colon containing these sacs.

+ Essentials in treatment are bed rest, a bland diet, stool softener, and drugs that relax the intestine. Sulfonamides or an antibiotic help to control the infection. Following the attack the victim should avoid roughage, alcoholic binges and stressful situations.

Dr. Van Dellen will answer questions on medical topics if stamped, self-addressed envelope accompanies request.

TOP VIEW now gives readers a rest from voting. The TV fall-winter (67-68) season is now starting, but we will not ballot the new season's programs until readers have had a chance to see them several times. Then you will be more certain of your opinions. Our next ballot box will appear the weekend of September 16/17.

During this new season, watch all programs with a fresh, critical eye. Be actively concerned with TOP VIEW voting. This nationwide newspaper survey will reveal what viewers think of all programs.

READERS SPEAK

Dear TV: Mothers and fathers who have sons in Vietnam do not want to look at war stories or city violence. If a survey could be taken, you would find sets are turned off or to another station when such stories are shown. — N. U., Orlando, Fla.

Dear TV: From some of the previews shown, we are going to have very few decent TV programs this year. As for summer replacements, none is much good except for "Malibu U." — A Teenage Complainer, Millington, Tenn.

Dear TV: August 2nd, Miss Mayher wrote that James Bond movies were filthy, smutty, and terrible. The Bond movies are well acted, well directed and produced, and any normal person should enjoy them. Those who don't like them do not have to watch them. — Tommy Keenan, Memphis, Tenn.

Dear TV: Here we go again! Football every weekend until snow goes and, lucky us, five pre-season games, weekday evenings. During the season when one game is over they pick up another in progress. I can't believe we are the only family in the USA that finds football boring — even in living color. — Vs Football All Weekends, and Then Some, Rapid City, S.D.
